

GROUND

Returning to the Word of God again and again as His story shapes ours.

Following Jesus, together, in and for the word.

To be a welcoming and gracious family grounded in the Word of God and the story of His love

Embodying the redemptive love of Jesus in our communities and throughout the world.

Inviting all people into a Spiritled journey of transformation into Christlikeness.

Grounded in The Story of Jesus

Every day, competing stories fight for our attention and affections. We are all being shaped by some story. As followers of Jesus, we believe only His story leads to true life. At the start of a new year, we're choosing to ground ourselves in that story.

One of the most powerful ways we do this is by letting the message of Christ "dwell among us richly." So, we invite you to open the Scriptures together with us. Reading the same passages, wrestling with the same questions, and making space each day for an encounter with Jesus. Before we pick up a phone or open an inbox, we want to "let the peace of Christ rule in our hearts" by giving God's voice first and primary place in our day.

Anchored in the Christian Year, our readings will follow the church's historic calendar, a rhythm that has grounded Christians in the story of Jesus for centuries. Advent's longing, Christmas' wonder at "God-with-us," Epiphany's light to the nations, Lent's journey of repentance and surrender, Easter's resurrection joy, and Ordinary Time's steady, everyday faithfulness in the way of Jesus. Moving through the year with this rhythm means we don't just learn Jesus' story, we live inside it, until it shapes our habits, our hopes, and the work of our hands.

Imagine our whole church grounded in the story of Jesus. Day by day, our lives rooted and built up in Him, strengthened in faith and overflowing with thankfulness. So let's open the Scriptures together. Let's tether our days to Jesus' life, devote our attention to His presence, and step into this year hoping to be changed, challenged, and transformed as we live in and from His story.

The Christian Year

The Christian Year is an annual rhythm of seasons and holy days that walks us through the life of Jesus (His birth, ministry, death, resurrection, and ongoing work through the Spirit) so our lives are continually grounded in His story rather than the stories that surround us.

Advent reflects our longing and waiting for Jesus, so we'll learn to wait, watch, and hope for Jesus' return. "Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength." (Isaiah 40:31)

Christmas reflects Jesus' birth and incarnation, so we'll celebrate the gift of "God-with-us" with joy, generosity, and rest. "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us." (John 1:14)

Epiphany reflects the revealing of Jesus to the world, so we'll pay attention to how Jesus is revealed in Scripture and in our world through his followers. (Jan. 6th - Feb. 17th) "Arise, shine, for your light has come." (Isaiah 60:1)

Lent reflects Jesus' journey toward the cross, so we'll simplify and surrender, repenting of sin, letting go of lesser loves through fasting, prayer, and generosity. (Feb. 18th - April 4th) "Return to me with all your heart." (Joel 2:12)

Easter reflects Jesus' resurrection and victory over death, so we'll rejoice in the risen Christ and practice resurrection living. (April 5th - May 24th) "He is not here; he has risen!" (Luke 24:6)

Ordinary Time reflects the ongoing life and ministry of Jesus in and through the Church, so we'll learn to follow Jesus in the "ordinary" days, growing slowly but steadily in his likeness. (May 25th - Nov. 29th) "Remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit" (John 15:5)

How to use this book:

In the pages that follow, you'll find a daily Bible reading plan shaped by the Christian Year, an ancient, global rhythm that walks us through the story of Jesus' birth, life, death, resurrection, and promised return. As we follow this pattern together, we are learning to let Jesus' story shape our story, so we can truly become a people who are following Jesus, together, in and for the world.

This guide invites you to meet with God using the acronym ROOT. ROOT is a simple, intentional way to engage the Word of God so that your life becomes more deeply grounded in the way of Jesus.

Each day, we encourage you to set aside time to be still and allow the Holy Spirit to shape your life through the Word of God using these four steps:

R – Rest in God's presence

Begin by pausing. Set aside distractions and become present to God. Take a few deep breaths. Give yourself a moment to become aware of God's presence with you. Ask the Holy Spirit to center your attention and open your heart to receive what God wants to reveal through the Scriptures.

O – Observe the Word

Read the Scripture passage for the day slowly and attentively. Pause for a quiet moment to listen, then consider reading it again.

- What words, phrases, or images capture your attention?
- What questions rise up?
- What stands out to you?

Write down your observations without rushing to explain or apply, simply notice.

O – Offer your reflections

Take time to reflect on what God might be saying to you through the passage. How does this intersect with your current life, relationships, or challenges? What is being stirred in you? Conviction, hope, comfort, clarity?

Journal your reflections and your response. Be honest with God as you offer your thoughts, feelings, and circumstances to Him.

T – Take it into your day

Let God's Word take root and form your life. How might today's Scripture shape your actions, words, and mindset? What is one step of obedience you can take today?

Write down a practical way you will live out what God has shown you. End by writing a brief prayer of devotion and surrender, or consider using a prayer from the following page.

Prayers to consider:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, holy is your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Covenant Prayer of John Wesley

Lord, I am no longer my own, but Yours. Put me to what You will, rank me with whom You will. Put me to doing, put me to suffering. Let me be employed for You or laid aside for You, exalted for You or brought low for You. Let me be full, let me be empty. Let me have all things, let me have nothing. I freely and heartily yield all things to Your pleasure and disposal. And now, O glorious and blessed God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit., You are mind and I am Yours. So be it. And the covenant which I have made on earth, let it be ratified in heaven. Amen

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Prayer of St. Patrick

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit, Christ when I stand, Christ in the heart of everyone who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me. Amen.

Prayer of St. Benedict

Gracious and holy Father, give me wisdom to perceive you, intelligence to fathom you, patience to wait for you, eyes to behold you, a heart to meditate upon you, and a life to proclaim you, through the power of the Spirit of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

May the God who sees you, knows you, and loves you, ground His word and the story of his love,
deeply inside you.
